

the bagpiper

NEWS

SPORTS

A&amp;E

FORUM

FEATURES

Readers,

Thank you for picking up this issue of the Bagpiper. Today's paper highlights student involvement in Dance Marathon tomorrow, the business class teaching students how to go green, and State Solo and Ensemble. We hope that as you read these stories, you are able to better connect with what is going on at FC widescale.

Also, we would love to hear from you. If you would like to submit a letter to the Bagpiper, our email is bagpiper.fchs@gmail.com.

Hannah Clere, Editor-in-Chief

- Page 3      Going green: Class sponsored by Good to Grow Green educates students on healthy living and teaching business
- Pages 10&11      Worldwide education: Comparing education around the world; sharing ideas on learning
- Pages 4      Boys' basketball: Players prepare for sectionals and state tournament
- Page 5      Boys' swimming: Athletes leave for meet in Indianapolis today
- Page 6&7      State Solo and Ensemble: Students bond over music and strive for gold
- Page 9      Abbey Road: Beatles influence artists from their era on
- Page 12      Editorial: The Bagpiper looks into the standards set in American education
- Page 13      Letter to the Bagpiper: Sophomore Liam Roggenkamp shares views on immigration
- Page 15      Self acceptance: How self improvement ties into self confidence
- Page 16&17      Dance Marathon: Floyd Central students fundraise for Riley Children's Hospital
- Page 19      Physical expression: How expression helps with mental health of students
- Page 20      1 in 1800: Take a look inside the life of junior Markus Benz

Front cover:

FLOYD CENTRAL DANCE MARATHON handprint posters signify the celebration and unity to come at the event tomorrow. Support for Riley Children's Hospital begins tomorrow at 1 p.m. Fee for entry and shirt is 40 dollars at the door. Photo by Nicholas Gordon.

Table of contents:

FLOYD CENTRAL FOOD PROJECT uses green products to study business and marketing, as well as practicing philanthropy by giving to charities and the community. Photo by Taylor Watt.